SWAMINARAYAN UNIVERSITY
THE RESERVOIR OF ALL KNOWLEDGE

FACULTY OF PHARMACY

Event	Future in clinical research in Pharma
Date of Event	30th JAN 2024
Speaker	Ms. Bharkha.(Manager of Medicourse)
Venue	Shree Swaminarayan College of Pharmacy
Participants	B. Pharm& Pharm.D students. Total :150 students

Event Objective:

Understanding Current Trends and Innovations in Clinical Research. Discuss advancements such as decentralized clinical trials, the use of AI and machine learning in data analysis, and personalized medicine approaches.

Preparing for Evolving Roles and Challenges. Explore the skills and competencies needed to thrive in clinical research, such as project management, regulatory knowledge, and data-driven decision-making.

Event Description:

Ms. Bharkha delivered the first talk of seminar. She discussed about various aspects like career in clinical research within the pharmaceutical industry. Innovative Drug Development: Contributing to the development of new medications by designing and managing clinical trials that ensure safety, efficacy, and compliance with regulatory standards.

Dynamic Career Growth: Offering opportunities for professional advancement, global exposure, and impactful work in improving healthcare outcomes.

Glimpse of Event:

